Postdoctoral Scholars work under the close supervision of one or more Caltech professorial faculty members. A Postdoctoral Scholar must have an earned doctorate from a duly accredited institution. They are appointed for limited terms, usually one year, and are full-time appointments. There is a nine-year limit on the cumulative time spent as Postdoctoral Scholar and Senior Postdoctoral Scholar. (Ph.D. graduates of Caltech may become Postdoctoral Scholars for up to one year only, for purposes of finishing up research "loose ends.")

NOTE: Recommendations must be submitted to the Division Office at least one week before the Postdoctoral Scholars/Visitors Office submission deadline of 4 weeks for U.S. citizens/perm. Residents and 8 weeks for nonresident aliens

Submit form with CV and 2-3 letters of recommendation to Stefany Nielsen, BBE Division Office
